The soluble dispenser with a touch of class

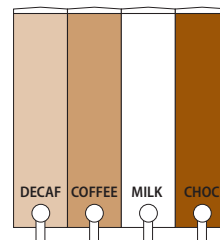

Boasting an intuitive and easy to use touchscreen interface, the Quattro guides you through drink selection and delivery effortlessly via a central 7" HD video panel.

The Quattro also incorporates an ultra crisp 130x 260mm 10:1 HD TFT media screen, which can be used for almost unlimited video lengths, running photo books or slide shows. All of this can be swiftly updated via an easily accessible SD card to react new seasonal offers and campaigns to any non-machine specific advertising, making this a very powerful sales tool in its own right.
